It's the Logical Move

Executive Relocation

Matrix International's executive relocation program manages more than 8,000 moves annually. We fully understand the complexities involved in international moves, and have brought most of our key functions in-house. Our services include, but are not limited to origin/destination services; export crating; inland drayage; ocean and airfreight forwarding, and warehousing. By directly controlling the process of our door-to-door service, the client can be assured of receiving superior quality service at the most cost-effective price. Matrix International Logistics, Inc. is a Prime Contractor (full service provider). As a full-service international relocation company, we are committed to our clients in controlling all major transportation aspects of any international move. Through this, we increase expatriate satisfaction by eliminating complexities, timely transport of goods and overall reduced cost savings to the customer. Expatriate satisfaction is further derived through the quality of service provided by single source accountability.
